Administrative/Biographical History

The Heritage Preservers of Rosedale and District was formed in 1985 for the purpose of editing and publishing a book on the history of their area. With the aid of two grants from the New Horizons Administration of Health and Welfare Canada, they succeeded in the production and sale of one thousand copies of "In the Shadow of Mt. Cheam". Their purpose fulfilled, they met for the last time in December 1989 and disbanded.

Includes 14 negatives.

Scope and Content

The fonds consists of drafts of articles and original photographs used in the book "In the Shadow of Mt. Cheam". Also included are the group's business correspondence, and some original archival documents, essays, and photographs pertaining to the Rosedale area but not used in the book.
