

Date printed:

08/02/2001

680

Kinette Club of Chilliwack fonds.

1950-1983.

14 cm of textual records.

Administrative/Biographical History

The Kinsmen Club of Chilliwack was formed in 1928. In 1944 the Kinette Club, an organization for the wives of Kinsmen, was formed. The Club organizes social activities for its members and supports various charitable causes.

Scope and Content

The fonds consists of the Historian Reports, consisting of summaries of the Club's activities and in some cases photographs, clippings, or memorabilia for the years 1950-1951 and 1952 to 1965. The Social Convenor's files for 1967 to 1973 document activities for those years. Two large scrapbooks containing snapshots, clippings, memorabilia, and textual information provide detailed documentation for the period 1981-1983.

Notes

Title based on the contents of the fonds.

As per the original gift form, the scrapbooks are lent out once a year, usually in February for the Kinsmen's annual history night

Location

C 2 6

Subject(s)

Kinette Club of Chilliwack

KINETTE CLUB OF CHILLIWACK

an inventory of its records held in the

CHILLIWACK ARCHIVES

(Add.MSS.680)

compiled by

JIM BOWMAN

August 1991

History

The Kinsmen Club of Chilliwack was formed in 1928. In 1944 the Kinette Club, an organization for the wives of Kinsmen, was formed.

The Club organizes social activities for its members and supports various charitable causes.

Custodial history

These records were maintained by the Club, then donated to the Chilliwack Archives in 1989.

Scope and content

These records include the Historian Reports, consisting of summaries of the Club's activities and in some cases photographs, clippings, or memorabilia, for the years 1950-1951 and 1952 to 1965. The Social Convenor's files for 1967 to 1973 document activities for those years. Two large scrapbooks containing snapshots, clippings, memorabilia, and textual information provide detailed documentation for the period 1981-1983.

